

Front End Workflow

- The first user would add a doctor to the database using the add feature.
- Then the user would update the doctor information using the update feature.
- The user could then look up and reconfirm the details updated using the search feature.
- The last feature would sort doctors based on user preference of rating and location recommending the highest rated doctor near you.